

Acceptance Letter - International Journal of Distance Education Technologies

Dear Dr. Rasulova Munojat Akmaljonovna, Mamataliyeva Xulkaroy Murodovna.

We are pleased to inform you that your manuscript entitled:

“The Effect of AI-Powered Intelligent Tutoring Systems on Self-Regulated Learning Skills of University Students” has been formally accepted for publication in the International Journal of Distance Education Technologies (ISSN:1539-3100, E-ISSN:1539-3119), subject to final editorial processing and formatting compliance.

Your manuscript has successfully passed the peer-review process. The reviewers and the editorial board have acknowledged the scholarly contribution of your study to the field of distance education technologies, particularly its innovative exploration of AI-powered intelligent tutoring systems and their impact on self-regulated learning among university students.

The paper will now proceed to the production stage, including copyediting, typesetting, and final proofreading. You will receive further communication regarding galley proofs and publication scheduling in due course.

Please ensure that all final required documents (copyright form, author agreement, and any requested revisions) are submitted within the specified timeframe to avoid delays in publication.

We congratulate you on this achievement and thank you for choosing the International Journal of Distance Education Technologies as the venue for your research.

Sincerely,

Editorial Office
